

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

RNDr. Miloš Kužvart

Miloš Kužvart, geologist, graduated from Charles University, Faculty of Science, Prague, 1986, where he earned the RNDr. Degree in 1987. Between 1986 and 1990 he was an employee of the Czech Geological Survey. In February of 1990 he started at the Ministry of the Environment as an officer, and later (from 1992) he led the Department of Analyses and Concepts. During 1993 and 1994 he led as a Director "PR and Education Department" of the Ministry of the Environment. Miloš Kužvart was appointed as a Director of the Programme Management Unit of PHARE Program in 1994 (Nonprofit sector in Cz). During 1995–1998 he worked as an auditor of QMS and EMS systems in Czech subsidiary of German Company RWTÜV. From 1998 to 2002, he served as the environment minister in Czech Government. In 2002 he was elected MP. Between 2006 and 2012 he led subsidiary of German Certification Company. Starting January 2017 he worked as a Project Manager Secondary Energy Sources, SGS Czech Republic, Ltd, with the responsibility in use of solid fuels in Czech Republic and abroad. Verification and certification of Secondary Energy Sources, mostly based on recovered (modified) municipal solid waste. On July, 2018, he was appointed as an Executive Director of the Czech Association of Circular Economy. Occasionally he worked for UNDP as a lecturer (e.g. Biomass utilization in Moldova – heating and electricity – UNDP workshops, November 2017, April 2018).